US troops to leave Iraq in 18 months

WASHINGTON—PRESIDENT GEORGE W. BUSH is expected to order all US combat troops to leave Iraq by August 2007, administration officials said, citing the state on a war that has led to the death of more than 4,000 American soldiers.

The public engagement in Iraq's conflict is expected to end by August 2007, Bush said. The war in Iraq, which began in 2003, has cost more than 4,000 US lives and more than 30,000 US troops are in Iraq, he said.

tax targets 4-4% policy output growth

By Nay H. Hsiao

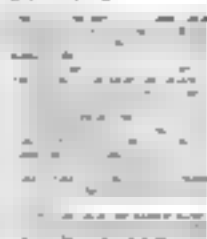

THE GOVERNMENT'S target for 2009-10 is to achieve a 4-4% growth in policy output, which is a significant improvement from the 2-2% target for 2008-09. The target is based on the assumption that the economy will grow at 4-4% and the government will maintain a 4-4% growth in policy output.
